MEMORANDUM FOR SOLDIERS ASSIGNED TO KOREA

SUBJECT: Memorandum of Understanding Pertaining to Date Eligible to Return from Overseas (DEROS)

1. PURPOSE: To inform the soldiers assigned to Korea of the service remaining requirement to be eligible to PCS to CONUS and the establishment of a DEROS date.
2. REFERENCES: AR 614-30 (Overseas Service); AR 601-280 (Army Retention Program); AR 600-8-11 (Reassignments).
3. The 1st Replacement Company (IRC) establishes the initial DEROS for all soldiers based on the type of tour the soldier may be on (Unaccompanied Tour = 1 year; Accompanied/With Dependents Tour = 2 years). The servicing Personnel Service Detachment (PSD) and the Theater Army Replacement Operations (TARO) will make supplemental adjustments based on individual cases based on : Foreign Service Tour Extensions/Curtailment, reenlistment, Extensions of Service Agreements, Retirements, etc.
4. Soldiers must have at least 6 months remaining obligated service (after completing leave and travel time enroute) upon scheduled arrival date at gaining CONUS duty station.
5. Soldiers arriving in Korea who will not have sufficient remaining service (IAW AR 614-30, para 6-1(f)) at DEROS are not eligible for reassignment to CONUS unless they extend or reenlist to meet time in service/grade requirements. Soldiers who enter their reenlistment window (12 months from ETS) are prohibited from extending their ETS and must reenlist. Soldiers that wish to extend or reenlist are advised to contact their servicing Career Counselor or Battalion Reenlistment NCO within the next 60 days to preclude the Involuntary Foreign Service Tour Extension.
6. Soldiers who were involuntarily extended and later acquire sufficient service to be eligible for reassignment will be allowed to depart the Korean Theater after completing their prescribed tour or within 120 days after date of receipt of their RFO or EDAS Cycle, whichever is longer.
7. Soldiers who reenlisted for the Korea Targeted Selective Reenlistment Bonus (TSRB) will serve an 18 month tour.
8. Are you a TSRB recipient (circle one)? YES/NO
9. Soldiers should address question pertaining to their DEROS to their Battalion S1 or servicing PSD.

I certify I have read and understand the regulatory guidance outlined above pertaining to reassignment eligibility and the establishment of a DEROS date.

MEMORANDUM FOR (Soldier's Name, Rank, and Unit)

SUBJECT: Date Eligible for Return from Overseas (DEROS)

1. The DEROS is important to the Theater's strength management system and is the key element in replacement flow and selection process. Upon arrival in the Korean Theater, you had an initial DEROS established showing when you will normally return to the Continental United States (CONUS) after completing your prescribed tour.

2. IAW AR 614-30, paragraph 6-1 f(2), and 8th PERSCOM Memorandum, Subj: Date Eligible for Return from Overseas (DEROS) Management, dated 1 Feb 02, paragraph 4c(1c), to be eligible for reassignment to CONUS, you must have at least 6 months remaining obligated service upon arrival at gaining CONUS duty station. A review of your records reveals that you do not have sufficient remaining service to be eligible for reassignment to CONUS. You must contact your Career Counselor or Battalion Reenlistment NCO and complete one of the following actions by (enter suspense date).

a. Elect a discharge for the purpose of immediate reenlistment.

b. Extend current enlistment to meet the Service Remaining Requirement (6 months upon arrival at the CONUS duty station).

3. Should you fail to acquire sufficient service to be eligible for reassignment by the above suspense date, your tour will be adjusted to your ETS.

4. POC is (enter DEROS Manager's Name, Rank, and phone number).
